

REQUIRED FOR PROPHETIC LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATION (TRACK I)

SPL2000 - Prophetic Paradigms

Shaping Prophetic Worldview through Four Frames

"...and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; and your young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams:" Acts 2:17 (KJV)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

How are we to interpret a contemporary world marked by turmoil, violence, and trouble impacting our homes, churches, communities, government, and nations? While the effects of the breakdowns we see operate on many levels such as social, political, and economic, ultimately the source is spiritual. The seer capacities of the prophet engages a high degree of discernment needed to identify source issues, interpret the times and seasons and capture a radical kingdom perspective. This seminar will lead you through the four critical frames that shape the seer role and construct the prophetic paradigm necessary to transform our modern world. Develop prophetic leadership skills to help you understand the times and know what to do!

COURSE INSTRUCTOR

Pr. Kathleen Verna, PureSpring Institute Director

An experienced equipper and prophetic practitioner, Pastor Verna is a creative leadership strategist and urban church planter who takes revelatory Biblical principles and practical methods and equips a select cadre of kingdom leaders from the basics to a high level of proficiency in activating their kingdom commission.

COURSE THEMES

SEMINAR ONE: The Spheres and Spiritual Dimensions.

- Develop the capacity to be true Spirit-bearers and cultivate radical dependence on the Holy Spirit through the three-phase prophetic process.
- Understand the sources of revelation: Listen and watch for God by dreams, visions, and appearances.
- Engage revelatory realms and access the supernatural workings of the Spirit.
- Develop proficiency in recognizing the signs that define Prophetic times
- Build an arsenal of spiritual warfare tools: Learn to engage in spiritual warfare, including such activities as intercessory prayer.

SEMINAR TWO: The Sectors in Social Transformation.

- Be thoroughly rooted within the Christian Scriptures, as the Bible is the revelation of God's will for mankind and the essence of prophecy is revelation.
- Handle the Word with prophetic insight. Be able to discern and offer new or forgotten readings that counter interpretations of Scripture that address evil personally and culturally.
- Maintain a clear and vast understanding of God's moral and ethical standards, while actively engaging society by constantly flowing out to all people, to all sectors of society, and to all parts of the world,
- Proclaim the entire Christian story embodied in the canon of Scripture and the prophetic traditions of the Church.
- Issue a call for repentance, confront evildoers about their sin, and warn the oppressors of injustice, wrongdoing and corruption, the contemporary prophetic movement must be able to speak truth to powers.

SEMINAR THREE: The Shaking of the Nations.

- Explore Daniel and Revelation as apocalyptic writings to form Biblical basis of apocalyptic visions
- Deepen understanding of current events: from individual words into larger themes.
- Understand how to invest current events with their theological significance.
- Learn how to address larger social issues on a global scale and great magnitude.
- Employ apocalyptic moves by emphasizing the role that prophecy has in speaking on multi-levels: into the life of individuals and institutions, etc.

SEMINAR FOUR: The Shaping of the Final Generation.

- Explore the essentials of biblical eschatology which focuses on last things and what is to come at the end of this age.
- Understand how to use prophecy in its fullest scope, as fundamentally concerned with a memory of the past, an awareness of God's future, and an understanding of what time it is right now.
- Build a solid eschatological foundation, to avoid the prophetic tendency to drift into arbitrary, and often largely inconsequential, activities.
- Implement an eschatological paradigm that keeps at the forefront the Biblical narrative unfolding throughout history and the ultimate destiny of mankind and the world.
